Cafaro Foundation Awards Scholarships to Local Students

One dozen talented, college-bound students from the Mahoning Valley are receiving a little help in paying their tuition. The Cafaro Foundation is proud to award them with scholarships for the upcoming academic year. The recipient of the $5,000 William M. and Alyce Cafaro Memorial Scholarship is Corey Flick of Hubbard, OH. Two $3,000 John A. Cafaro Scholarships are going to Julia Beck (Boardman, OH) and Jonathon Fauvie (Mineral Ridge, OH).

Nine $2,000 John A. Cafaro Scholarships have been awarded to Corey Burton (Warren, OH), Cara Gatti (Hubbard, OH), Justin Hughes (Struthers, OH), Nicholas Lucarell (Boardman, OH), Justin May (Cortland, OH), Michal Mymo (Girard, OH), Andrew Pizzulo (Hubbard, OH), Vincenzo Romeo (Warren, OH) and Michael Thomas (Youngstown, OH).

Trustees of the Cafaro Foundation awarded the scholarship grants based primarily on the students' academic merit, while also considering their financial need and the recommendations of teachers and guidance counselors.

(MORE)

The Cafaro Foundation is a charitable entity established by the Cafaro family in loving memory of William M. Cafaro, the founder of the real estate development and management company that bears his name in Youngstown, Ohio. For over a half century, Mr. Cafaro, along with his wife Alyce and brother John A. Cafaro, enthusiastically supported churches, schools, hospitals and other charitable causes. Since its inception in 1996, the Cafaro Foundation has awarded nearly $5 million in grants to worthy organizations and individuals. The Youngstown-based Cafaro Company is one of America's largest privately-held real estate development firms, managing more than 30-million square feet of property in 11 states.
